A WEST POINTERS OPINION OF BELKNAP.
—A West Point graduate, an old army officer, in an interview with a reporter for the New York Herald, said: "Belknap is not the great offender. Behind him and above him is a man who, educated at West Point, instructed in the points of honor that should govern army officers and render them impervious to approach either by politician or plebeian, has prostituted his office at every step in the interest of party. I will not name him, but you can easily, Yankee like, 'guess' who he is.
This man owes the position he now holds in the first place to Illinois politicians who had influence with the well meaning President Lincoln, and in the second place to the fact that when the war closed he had a responsible position that made him popular with the leaders of both political parties. It was unfortunate that upon the reputation of Sheridan, Thomas, Hannock, Sherman, and others he reached a goal that has enabled him to rule a country and make every army officer subservient to him. I tell you, sir, our American people were too patriotic when the war closed; they did not stop to ask who deserved the crown of laurel with which, I believe, the old Romans crowned their victors, but hurriedly placed it upon the brow of a—"
"Fraud?" suggested the reporter. "That is about the long and short of it," said the officer, with a smile; "but," continued he, "I forget in my enthusiasm that discipline was one of the first lessons I had at West Point, and I should not have said so much. Please don't quote me."

MURDER NEAR PATTONSVILLE.—We learn that a Mr. Ferriar was murdered one mile between Pattonville, Scott county, Va., on last Saturday night. It seems that a party of men went to Ferriar's house to a "shin-dig," and a party of men in disguise came to the house and surrounding it, ordered the inmates to surrender. Ferriar, with an axe in hand, rushed to the door coming in contact with one of the men in disguise. Ferriar struck the man with the axe, and it is thought killed him. In the meantime another man came up, thrusting a pistol into the face of Ferriar and fired, killing him (Ferriar) instantly. One man was struck with the butt end of a gun, and the party left him for dead, but after some time had elapsed he returned to consciousness, rose from the ground and departed. The disguised party left the neighborhood, crossing Powell's mountain. It is supposed that this party are from Lee county.
They had notified Ferriar to leave the place where he was then living by a certain day, and that if he failed to do so, he should suffer for it. Ferriar refused to comply with the orders, thereby ending in the taking of his life.
This is the most outrageous deed ever committed in Scott county.—Scott Banner.

PORTRAIT OF POCAHONTAS.—Col. S. Bassett French yesterday received from Mr. Elmore Neville Rolfe, of Beacham Hall, King's Lynn, England, a framed portrait of Pocahontas about ten by twelve inches in size. He deposited it in the State Library, as it was intended by the donor to take that direction and there remain. The Virginia Princess has a very dark copper-colored face, and does not appear altogether lovely, though decked with a high feather and a large square cut lace collar. The picture is a correct reproduction of what is supposed to be an authentic portrait, and bears the following inscription: "Mataoka alias Pocahontas, Wife of Powhatan, Prince of Pamunkey, Virginia."

Col. French published a note in Notes and Queries in relation to pictures of Pocahontas, which led to a correspondence with Mr.
Rolfe (a relative of the Rolfe who married Pocahontas), resulting in the presentation of this picture to the State.—Richmond Dispatch.

A GAMBLING BANK PRESIDENT.—The examination of the affairs of the Walkill National Bank was continued yesterday at the office of Register Little. The "capper" who induced Graham, the President of the bank, to go into the gambling establishment of Briggs & Moody, 1,132 Broadway, where he lost $32,000, testified that the liquor given to Graham was drug gold. One of the firm, named Briggs, pretended to Graham that he was only the dealer in the establishment, and if Graham would follow his advice he would so deal the cards that Graham could recover the money he had lost. Graham went down in a cab to the Park Bank, drew $10,000, staked it as the dealer directed him, and lost. The "capper" is stated to be a man of good family, and his business is only known to a few.

AN ENTERPRISING GROCER in the town of Santa Clara, Cal., has adopted an original method of business. Each side of the store is fitted up for business on its own account. In the general arrangement each side is a duplicate of the other, the difference being that one side is cash and the other credit. When a customer comes in the first question asked is "Do you wish to buy for cash or on account?" If it is a cash customer the goods and prices on the cash side are shown, but if it is one who wants credit he is shown the other side, and for the first time in his life, perhaps, made to realize the value of ready money.

Pending the discussion of the tax bill in the House of Delegates, last Monday, Mr. Stuart said that it is not the State debt which is now oppressing the people, but the public school system. According to the Auditor's report the State has to date expended $2,295,474 upon it, while the counties, cities and towns have appropriated, he thought, nearly as much, or at least enough to make the whole amount $5,000,000. But for this we could have gotten along without the present embarrassment.

LEGER'S FLUID (RED), THE UNI-VERSAL DISINFECTANT. (Permanent of Soda.) It is the only true disinfectant known, all other preparations sold for this purpose being merely deodorizers (or articles which possess the property of overpowering unpleasant smells by their own pungent and often disagreeable and dangerous qualities.) It is particularly adapted for disinfecting sick rooms in cases of typhus fever, small pox, cholera, scarlet fever, diarrhea, and all contagious diseases, and for purifying rooms in which there are dead bodies, removing at once all unpleasant smells, and destroying effectually any latent germs of disease. By placing the diluted fluid in dishes or basins, about bed chambers, school rooms, workshops, hospitals, &c., it keeps the air in a perfect state of purity. For stables, slaughter houses, butchers' shops, dairies, cellars, &c., it is invaluable, keeping them in a perfectly wholesome state, by merely sprinkling the diluted fluid over the floors and walls. It keeps dust, dirt, water closets, drains, urinals, &c., sweet and wholesome, by using once or twice a day. For sale by
